The warm bubble bath feels so good on my smooth skin. I love shaving my long slender legs in the tub. My feet are a strong point, many lovers have said so as they kiss and suck my painted toes.

Actually, I would be a good looking very sexy woman if my 7" cum filled cut cock didn't detract. I can see it swelling now as I shave my pubic area. I am about 5' 8" tall and slender, long dirty blond hair, sexy smile and a terrific sex drive that hit me hard when I was about 12 years old or so. Here is my story:

I lived with adoptive parents who found me in an orphanage. They warned the couple that I couldn't, or wouldn't leave my penis alone and my sheets were nearly always a mess in the mornings. They told the Goodmans that I answered to Sammy. Paperwork was completed and I left with my new parents, Glen and Pam Goodman. They were average looking in their 40s I would guess.

Their old faded house was certainly better than the orphanage even if it didn't have air conditioning and was hot inside. Glen said they didn't have doors or window shades because of the heat, not even in the bathroom. I should have guessed that my new parents were fucking perverts but then they were better than the fucking do gooders where I came from.

Glen and Pam took me to my bedroom and said they were going to have a cold beer and get ready for bed. They said they would see me in the morning. I undressed and looked at myself in the bedroom mirror. I saw a short skinny boy with long unkept hair and a very hard cock. As I started to stroke myself I pretended the boy in the mirror was watching me. I spread my legs, leaned back and asked the mirror boy if he would like to suck my fucking cock.

It was dark out but out of the corner of my eye I caught my new parents peeking in through the curtainless window. I was so fucking horny that I decided I would give them a show. I felt like I was all cock as I jacked my throbbing prick until I shot streams of cum that hit the boy in the mirror.

It was too hot to sleep and I was still horny so I climbed out of my window and crept nude to theirs. Fuck but I was hard. What I saw nearly made me cum. There was Glen, standing next to their bed, dressed like a fucking slut. dark stockings in high heels, garter belt, bra and sheer red bikini panties that were wet with sticky cum. His cock looked like a wet snake inside his panties.

Pam was watching him and fucking herself with a huge dildo. They were both drunk and she laughed at him and said he was a fucking pervert to get off after watching the boy jack off. He shot back that she was as bad as he was fucking herself thinking of the boy. She said they could share him if they could seduce the little fucker.

In the morning Sammy put on an old thin pair of worn out baggy low cut cutoff shorts that he found in a drawer, no underwear or shirt. He stood in front of his mirror and marvelled at how his hanging cock bulge showed.

His cock had swollen as he walked into the kitchen. Glen and Pam were sitting there drinking oj with a bottle of vodka in front of them. They said good morning and said since it was a weekend they were going to celebrate and welcome Sammy into the family. And, since he was family they weren't bashful about near nudity or stiff drinks for all.

Glen got up to get Sammy a glass for oj and Sammy noticed the sweat on his well developed muscles. He had on tiny bikini briefs that barely covered his impressive cock. Pam leaned over and patted Glen on his nearly bare ass and told him she wished she could get by with just bikini briefs.

Of course Sammy knew they had set his seduction in play, dumb motherfuckers. Sammy told her it would be ok with him since they were family and she was pretty and he would like to see her nude. He saw Glen's cock twitch in his briefs as Sammy said that. She had her hand under her nightie and Sammy could feel his prick swelling.

Glen reached over the table to where Sammy was sitting and set a glass down and poured oj into it. Pam was rubbing Glen's ass and his big fucker was about to explode out of his bikinis. Sammy was turned on to Glen's muscular arms, shaved legs and certainly his huge cock bulge.

Sammy could see they were a little drunk already and stood to make a toast to his new family . He made sure his shorts were pulled way low over his hip bones and flat belly. His prick was nearly hard and he poured more vodka into their glasses. Glen asked if Sammy would like some vodka and Sammy giggled like a kid said he would love some.

About an hour later they were ripped and Pam stood up and said she was going to shower. Glen and Sammy helped her to the bathroom and she dropped her nightie to the floor and stood naked in front of them, cunt swollen and bubbly with lust. She said she hoped Sammy didn't mind and he said she was a beautiful mother and not to worry, that she would see him nude before long. She slurred that she would like that.

Sammy and Glen drank more as Pam showered and then had to dry her and put her to bed, fast asleep, passed out.

Glen took Sammy's little hand and led him to a couch. He put his arm around Sammy and Sammy slid over next to him, feeling his muscles and putting his head on his chest, mouth close to Glen's hard nipple and his hand on Glen's thigh, feeling the heat of his body. Glen hugged him close and gave him a kiss on the forehead and said he loved him. Sammy said he loved him like the father he never had and would do anything for him, anything and gave him a little wet kiss on his nipple.

Sammy looked up at him and smiled and soon they were kissing and Sammy's hand touched Glen's hard cock floating in his cum filled bikinis. Sammy slid his hand under his new father's bikini and found his cum coated swelling cock. He pulled the slimey prick out and kissed the head.

Sammy told Glen he loved him as a daddy and could also love him as a mommy, that he loved sucking his tit. Sammy took Glen's hand and put it on his rigid boy cock and said he didn't need Pam for his mommy.

Sammy knew he had his drunk father when Glen staggered up and lurched into the bedroom. Pretty soon Glen came back out dressed like a slutty mommy. Black stockings, black high heels, black garter belt, black lacey bra, black bikini panty barely concealing a very big wet cock. The make up wasn't on straight but fuck it, he was drunk.

Pam finally woke up, still drunk and totally horny. She stepped from their bed room and saw Glen's back. He was dressed in stockings and heels bent over a very nude Sammy. He was slowly fucking Sammy's smooth young brown hole. Every time he pulled out she saw his hard meat was shiny with pre cum and Sammy's ass juices. Then he would drive his big cock deep into the little ass hole while Sammy moaned with pleasure.

This was just fucking perfect. Sammy had a tremendous hard on as Glen fucked him. Pam silently slid under Sammy's bent form and took his leaking fucker in her cock sucking mouth.

Glen and Sammy came at the same time, crying out with pleasure. Pam sucked all of Sammy's huge load and then repositioned herself so that when her husband pulled his spent cock out of Sammy's ass hole she sucked up the cum and ass juice flow and then Glen's slimey spent prick fell into her mouth.

After they recovered a bit Pam looked at Sammy and said he would be a striking looker of a girl. Sammy said he would like that. While Glen watched and played with his cock Pam did Sammy's hair and applied make up to his pretty face. She painted his toe nails and found some girl's clothes from a young lover who used to stop by for sex.

When she finished Sammy looked like a very pretty young girl with a very hard cock. He gave Pam a big hug and his new mother told him to go over and kiss his daddy like a good girl. Oh yeah, and he did. When Pam left to get more drinks for them Sammy had his daddy bent over and was pounding his shit hole with his rigid prick.

This was almost too much for Pam, watching a pretty young girl fucking her husband's panty clad daddy's ass. After Sammy finished fucking his father and pulled his prick out for mommy to suck clean she said that he made a perfect Samantha. So, Samantha it was.

After that and many years later Samantha remembered his loving parents and how they drank and fucked as a family and taught him the joy of being a girl, well, almost a girl.

Now, in the present, years later:

Samantha looked at herself in the mirror and loved what she saw, older but still sexy. Already her cock was swimming in warm cum in her panties waiting for her new friend and his son as she set out drinks and lit candles.

The door bell rang and there they were, the good looking divorced man who had picked her up at a dance and then fucked the shit out of her when he found out his date had a cock. He had told her about his 14 year old son who was teased because he got hard in the shower with other boys. He had found him playing with himself looking at fashion magazines one night.

He continued that his son had started to cry and tried to cover his smooth nude body and stiff prick when his father discovered him. His dad climbed in bed with him and held his nude body close with love, kissing his tears away. He told his son that he had been teased as a loner too when he was young and even worse, sent home from school.

He admitted that he had fallen in love with another boy who also didn't fit in. His son asked him to continue and he said the school called his father and said the boys had been found kissing and fondling each other.

His father had beaten him and called him a queer and other names and he felt unloved and crushed. He said he wasn't going to do that with his son. His wife hadn't respected him and left them for what she called a real man because she found him wearing woman's under clothes.

At that point he removed his robe and let his son see his bikini panties and shaved pubic area. They spent the rest of the night looking at woman's fashions and holding each other. He woke up hours later with the motion of the bed while his son masturbated. His son's back was against him and he held him tight and kissed his neck and told him he loved him as his son frantically jerked off. He had a huge orgasm with streams of cum splashing on the sheet.

His son then turned to him, his young smooth hairless body covered in sweat and sticky warm cum and told his father that he loved him and it was his turn. His son gasped as his daddy pulled his panties down and his huge erect cock streaming pre cum sprang out. As he started to stroke his son put his little had on his daddy's wet cock and helped him cum until his little flat belly was covered with his father's splashing cum load. They went to sleep and awoke in the morning holding each other covered with sticky drying cum.

In the morning he told his son that he had fallen in love with the perfect mommy for him. He said she was beautiful and warm and caring and wanted a son to love. His son amazed him when he said he bet she had a penis and he would love her for that too.

So here they were, father and son, As his father hugged and kissed Samantha she noticed that the boy wasn't even trying to hide the hard bulge in his pants. She knelt down and took the boy in her arms and when she kissed him the little fucker stuck his tongue in her mouth.

The father had mixed drinks for all of them and proposed a toast to their new home and the boys new mommy. The boy smiled and winked at her as his cock grew in his pre cum spotted pants and Samantha knew that life was good, very fucking good.
